

I'm a "GOOD EGG" Because...

Invite your students to write about their character!

Each student can add to a colorful Easter bulletin board by writing about their character and why they think they are a "Good Egg" when it comes to being a good person of character.

Once the eggs are completed, you can assemble an Easter bulletin board to display all the good character your school/class is showing. You can also take this time to discuss the importance of having good character and why we should all be role models and set a good example for others.

STEP 1. Use the egg template provided to print on various colors of construction paper.

STEP 2. Cut out eggs and give one egg to each student to write why they think they are a "Good Egg" when it comes to having good character.

STEP 3. You can use the bunny template shown in the picture above to make as large as you need for your bulletin board or use your own bunny picture.

STEP 4. You can cut out your own letters or use the lettering template provide here for desired size.

STEP 5. Once the students have completed their writing exercise, you can construct your Easter bulletin board and recognize the students for setting good examples for others.
